

SHERIFF RETURNS WITH HOUSTON MAN

H. F. Thompson Arrested at Pekin, Ill., on Charge of Issuing Fraudulent Checks.

NUMBER WERE PASSED HERE

Defendant Waives Preliminary Hearing Before Justice Campbell—Held at County Jail.

Sheriff Harvey L. McCord returned late Wednesday night from Pekin, Ill., and brought with him H. F. Thompson, of Houston, who is wanted in this county on a charge of passing checks without funds in the bank upon which they were issued. A number of checks, it is alleged, were passed here in November. Thompson is also said to have operated at Crothersville and Louisville and Sheriff McCord was informed that he is alleged to have passed a worthless check for $25 in Pekin a short time before his arrest. Thompson has lived in the Houston neighborhood most of his life and was employed on various farms in that community.

Some of the checks which were given to local people were drawn on the First National Bank of this city and the Farmers' Bank at Freetown. He had no funds on deposit in either bank, it is stated. The checks were returned to the parties who cashed them and were marked "no funds." It is believed that Thompson succeeded in getting about $60 in this manner here. One check for $25 was passed by him at Crothersville, it is said, another for $50 at Scottsburg and several in Louisville.

The charge against Thompson was filed in the court of J. S. Campbell, justice of peace at Crothersville in December and the county authorities have been trying to get in touch with the man since that time. They were close on his trail at several points, but it was not until a few days ago that the officials at Peoria, Ill., wired Sheriff McCord that the man was being held. The telegram indicated that he was in jail at Peoria and when Sheriff McCord arrived there he was informed that Thompson was in jail at Pekin, a few miles away.

Thompson made no resistance to returning with the Jackson county sheriff. Immediately upon his arrival here Wednesday night Sheriff McCord took his prisoner to Crothersville and he was arraigned before Justice Campbell. He waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to circuit court under bond of $500. He will make no effort to furnish bail, it is stated, and will be held in the county jail until circuit court convenes February 24. It is probable that he will plead guilty.

Since the arrest of Thompson became known several checks which he is alleged to have placed in circulation have come to light.

Infant Cox Dead.

Word has been sent to Edwin Cox, residing at the Linke home on the Dudleytown road, to the effect that the body of Mrs. Oscar Cox's infant son will be sent to this city from Towanda, Ill., Friday. ## Flour and Feed Notice.

All farmers who have sold me wheat will get their flour without any raise in price. I am going to sell them the flour at the same price I did at harvest. I am grinding rye for feed at a lower price than hominy feed. I have all other feed in proportion. I also have a large stock of both eastern and Indiana coal on hand, put out all forked and in good shape at prices as low as the lowest. G. H. Anderson, Phone 333. j21d&wtf

CIRCULATION OF 4,945 IN JANUARY

More Than 3,050 People Enrolled as Borrowers in The Seymour Public Library.

7,407 VOLUMES CATALOGUED

Of the Average Daily Circulation of 183 Books, Fifty-eight Percent. Was Fiction.

One of the best monthly reports ever filed by the Seymour Public Library has been compiled by Miss Katherine Frazee, librarian, for January and shows that the total circulation for the thirty-one day period was 4,954 books. An increase in the reading room attendance is also reported, 1,518 people having taken advantage of that department during the month. The report as a whole reveals that the library is an institution of growing service and popularity.

The total circulation of adult "class" books was 824 and 1,273 juvenile class books. Fiction was more popular. 1,644 adult fiction were issued while 1,213 juvenile fiction were taken out. The adult circulation is given as 2,469 and the juvenile as 2,486, making a total of 4,954.

The library was open for circulation twenty-seven days during the month.

LITTLE ENTHUSIASM IS SHOWN IN SUFFRAGE ACT

Local Women Declare They Were Confident That Legislature Would Give Right.

Although Seymour women are pleased with the action of the state legislature in giving them the right to vote for presidential electors, there is very little enthusiasm over the extension of the suffrage law. The lack of enthusiasm is said to be due to the confidence of the women that the bill would pass and the announcement that they would be given partial suffrage meant only a realization of what they were certain would come.

The last suffrage law was held unconstitutional by the Indiana supreme court. It is known that some of the solons are of the opinion that this law does not differ materially from the one that was declared invalid two years ago, but the suffrage advocates who prepared the measure, declare there is no question about its constitutionality.

Under the law women are given the right to vote for presidential electors. Another bill before the legislature is designed to have given full suffrage to women and the State Franchise League leaders are now centering their activity upon this measure.

DIES SUDDENLY EARLY TODAY

Death Due to Heart Disease and Pneumonia, According to Verdict of County Coroner.

Mrs. Etta E. Loper, aged sixty years, wife of Ross Loper, Hamilton township, was found dead in bed this morning and it is believed that her death was due to heart disease and pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Loper and their daughter Mrs. Etta Browning, keep house for Albert Nelson and her death occurred here.

Mrs. Loper came to Seymour Sunday on account of the illness of the children of her son, William Loper. She returned home Wednesday afternoon but did not complain of being ill. She stated, however, that she was tired from her trip. Late in the afternoon she was given some medicine and Mrs. Browning ministered to her several times during the night. When she awoke this morning she found that her mother was dead, the end apparently having come about 5 o'clock.

George Manuel, county coroner, was notified and after an inquest returned a verdict that death was the result of heart disease and double pneumonia resulting from exposure.

Mrs. Loper was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Whitsett and was born at Dupont sixty years ago last September. Besides the husband she is survived by six children and fourteen grandchildren. The children are: William Loper, Seymour; Oscar, Brownstown township; Mrs. Armenta Linscott, of Missouri; Mrs. Dora Altemeyer, of Hamilton township; Shirley Loper, of Rockford and Mrs. Browning. One son, Hershell, died several years ago. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Berry Reedy and Mrs. Melissa Gorbett, both of Hamilton township.

The funeral arrangements will not be made until word is received from Mrs. Linscott.

OF NATION'S CONSTITUTION

Many Apparent Difficulties Solved by Agreement to Third Article.

By United Press.

Paris, February 6—General agreement has been reached on the principles underlying the whole draft of the league of nation's constitution, it was officially announced today.

At its latest meeting the league of nations committee practically agreed on the third article. While this decision is provisional, it was stated that many apparent difficulties have been solved.

As the special committee, having the work in charge, considers the problem contained in the twenty-two articles of the tentative program, the conferees are said to be rapidly approaching an agreement. The two questions presenting the great difficulties are means by which the league will enforce its decision.

Carter received the injury while working with a hawser on board his ship. The line slipped through his hand and a piece of the wire ran into the flesh but on extraction failed to bleed. Blood poison set in and he was placed in the naval hospital for treatment. The swollen hand was lanced and to all appearances the wound healed. Two or three days ago the swelling returned and now Carter is having serious trouble that will likely necessitate a second lancing. Carter will return to his ship February 17 to serve until his time expires one year from this coming April.

HEAVY TAXES ARE PROVIDED IN NEW REVENUE MEASURE

Normal Tax on Incomes Up to $4,000 is Six Percent, and Twelve Percent for Higher Incomes.

DISCHARGED SOLDIER, BONUS

Exemption on $1,000 Income for Unmarried People and $2,000 for Married Persons.

MANY SURTAXES ARE INCLUDED

Practically Everything Used in Daily Life Comes in for Its Share of The Revenue.

(By L. C. Martin, United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, February 6.—The conference report on America's six billion dollar war revenue bill—greatest in this nation's history—was presented to the house today by Chairman Kitchin of the ways and means committee.

In addition to raising about $6,000,000,000 in taxes, the bill gives every soldier, sailor and marine and all women nurses in the American forces a bonus of $60 upon discharge. This means an appropriation of more than $400,000,000.

Following are the chief provisions of the bill:

The normal income tax for 1918 is six percent, on incomes up to $4,000 and 12 percent, for higher incomes. After 1918 the normal is four percent, on incomes up to $4,000 and 8 percent on those over $4,000. The present normal is four percent.

Exemptions of $1,000 for a single person and $2,000 for a married one, with $200 additional for each dependent under 18, remain as at present.

The income surtax rates begin at one percent on incomes of $5,000 to $6,000 and run to 65 percent on incomes of over $1,000,000. Present surtaxes are lower on the middle and higher incomes, the highest rate in the present law being fifty percent on incomes of more than $1,000,000.

Partnerships and personal service corporations pay the tax as individuals, not as corporations. The corporation income tax for 1919 is twelve percent; and thereafter ten percent. The present rate is six percent.

The bill allows income taxes to be paid in one or four installments, as the taxpayer chooses. The first installment is due when the return is filed, the second three months later, the third in six and the last in nine months.

War and excess profits taxes. Provision is made for both war and excess profits taxes in the fiscal year but after that the war profits tax comes off except in certain specified cases where war contracts run over in later years.

Cigarettes, over three pounds a thousand $7.50; less than three $3; tobacco and snuff 18 cents a pound; cigarette papers in books of 25 to 50, 1/2 cent; 50 to 100; one cent; over 100 one cent for each fifty.

Admission and Dues.—The conferees cut to ten percent to twenty percent theater tax they had earlier decided on. After April 1919, the tax is one cent on each ten cents. Speculators who sell tickets at an excess of 50 cents over the regular price must collect and pay a tax of ten cents of the excess; if the excess is over 50 cents, a 50 per cent tax. Roof gardens and cabarets pay a tax of one and one half cents for each ten cents charged.

Symphony orchestra and entertainments given for charity or religious purposes are exempted.

Dues for over $30 a year pay ten percent; initiation fees over $10 pay the same, but fraternal orders operating on the lodge plan are exempted from both taxes.

Excise Taxes.—Auto trucks are taxed three percent of the sale price and other automobiles, except taxicabs.

These Durable Soles Cut Shoe Bills Down

"For use around cement plants and similar places where rough materials grind down soles quickly, I recommend Neolin Soles. They resist wear surprisingly. After working around the clinker department long enough to wear out two pairs of ordinary soles, my Neolin Soles are still as good as new," writes A. F. Miller, superintendent of The Peninsular Portland Cement Company plant in Jackson, Michigan. It is remarkable how tough and durable Neolin Soles are. They are made so by Science—comfortable and waterproof, too. They come on new shoes in many styles for men, women, and children, and are available everywhere for re-soleing. Wear them, and cut your shoe bills down.

CAPITAL OF $180.

The American soldier who left his home, his relatives and a profitable position to take up arms in defense of the nation is entitled to all the assistance and encouragement that the government can give. It is proposed that each returned soldier be given six months' wages immediately upon his discharge from the ranks. This would amount to $180 in each case, which is not a statesman sum, but which would greatly aid the men in finding employment and in taking care of their immediate needs until a steady income is again available. Many of the soldiers will return to work at the places where they were employed before they entered the service, but thousands of others will find no employment immediately upon discharge. They ought to have this assistance. It is a mighty little thing for the government to do for these men who sacrificed ambition and gave up future plans knowing that they were to come face to face with death.

We hear a great deal about the necessity of helping the people of Europe. In our anxiety to assist them we are prone to forget the obligation that we owe to our own soldiery. The payment of six months' wages to discharged soldiers would be giving them nothing. It would only be showing them in a very small way how much we appreciate their services. They are entitled to any help we can give. We have been spending billions for munitions and guns for destructive work. Surely it would not be extravagance to spend millions for this vital reconstruction work for our own heroes.

NOTHING TO BRAG ABOUT.

(The Fourth Estate.)

The United States civil service commission is sending out a circular letter stating that the government found it necessary, during the nineteen months of American participation in the war, to advertise to recruit the civil service to meet war needs—found it necessary, in fact, "to advertise extensively to recruit the workers."

The letter goes on to state the vast extent of its publicity work and winds up by saying:

"The only cost to the government for millions of dollars worth of advertising was for the printing of posters and circulars and for the making of lantern slides."

With all due deference to the fact that the government officials in charge of this work have been duly elected by the people, we must rise to remark that the statement quoted above is nothing to brag about.

The officials of the government admit the beggary and glory in its success. They didn't beg for munitions of war, or for ships, or for equipment or for thousands of other things that were needed to perfect our great war machine. They paid for all these things, and paid well. But as to publicity, the newspaper publishers' stock in trade, whether it was wanted for the civil service bureau or for the selling of Liberty bonds, that must be begged for, not paid for.

We state again that it is not a record to be proud of.

The report of the Seymour public library for January shows that an increasing number of people are taking advantage of the opportunities offered by that splendid institution. The library is conducted economically but in such an efficient manner that the needs of the public are fully met. It is doubtful if any library in the state is conducted so successfully on such a small income as is the institution in this city. The report is a compliment to the librarian and to the members of the board.

So long as the German people were in the wrong because they were held firm by the iron hand of military autocracy the allies maintained a sympathy for them. But the acts of revolution and rebellion throughout Germany apparently originate with the people themselves. They must lend assistance to the allies if they are to receive help.

The public will rejoice if the legislature will devise some plan whereby the present registration law can be remodeled and the objectionable features removed. Registration of voters may be necessary in congested centers but it is of little advantage in a rural community where every man knows his neighbor and the chance of defeating an election by bogus voting is very slight. The registration law is costly to operate and the benefits are few, except in the larger centers where the population is more or less of a changing character.

After the Chamber of Commerce is thoroughly organized why wouldn't it be a good thing to get in touch with Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and pull for a new union station for Seymour. That would be a mighty good start towards starting permanent improvements for Seymour.

When Will Prices Come Down.

The Gold Mine Department Store hold their Annual White Sale, beginning Friday morning, Feb. 7—and submit the following editorial to our readers:

There are numerous reasons, peculiar to the present time why many prices, both wholesale and retail, will not go back to what they were, even if they do stop climbing and do begin to moderate.

It is difficult to see how, after four years of the world's most destructive war, there can be anything but a scarcity of many kinds of goods.

Old men, women and children came nobly to the rescue, but they could not make up for the deficiency in the productive effort of near 50,000,000 of the strongest young men in Europe, America and Austria. And we will likely continue for years to make good the deficiency of most of the essential things in Europe.

Everyone must be patient, as millions of people will get their surplus money back, which they invested in Bonds and Stamps, from the Government, worth much more in buying power than when they loaned it to Uncle Sam to help win the war.

Let us be thankful we are as fortunate as we are, and purchase for future needs during this Sale, which always meets with great public appreciation.

Experts predict firm Linen Prices for more than a year at least, as most of our flax comes from Russia, whose neglected fields can not produce a crop until next fall. The whole world faces a Linen shortage.

When we give you our honest opinion, you will see this is a most favorable buying opportunity you will have for a long while.

Added to all these sale specials, will be special showings of New Spring Fabrics, Newest Spring Style Garments and "Chic" Tailored Spring Millinery.

SENIOR QUINTET WINS THE INTER-CLASS GAMES

Sophomores Take Second Place From Juniors by Score of 32 to 30.

The basket ball team of the Senior class took the honors of the inter-class games yesterday afternoon when they defeated the Freshmen by the large score of 54 to 6. All of the games were practically easy for the class of 1919, defeating the Juniors in a previous encounter by the score of 22 to 12 and the Sophomores, 31 to 18.

The Sophomores easily defeated the Freshmen, 31 to 15, but fell hard in their second game when they met the Seniors. The Juniors lost their first game to the Seniors while the Freshmen forfeited their second. This left the Juniors and Sophomores on equal footing, one game won and one lost. The Sophomores proved the better yesterday, however, when they snatched the honors of second place from the Juniors by the close score of 32 to 30. This was the hardest fought and best game of the entire series.

Having lost one game and forfeited the other the Freshmen decided to try their luck with the Seniors. The "black and gold" players took it easy, each member of the team fighting just as hard as he desired and no harder, and easily won by the large score of 54 to 6. Had the Seniors watched more closely and fought harder, they could have no doubt, as the boys express, it, "skunked the Freshies." However, that would have been too much "fun" and hard work so the Seniors took it easy.

During the first half, Keach was "fed" the ball and he did good, making eleven baskets. After making two of these baskets the score was tied by goals by Misamore and Diehl. Buhner, of the Seniors, was the other one to interrupt Keach's seige on the basket, making two field goals. The first half ended 26 to 4.

In the second half Buhner retired, Huber taking his place. The scoring for this half was more evenly divided Keach making but four field goals while James and Huber did the same. Mercer did not want to be left out of the scoring, accordingly he saw to it that two goals were registered beside his name. Diehl was the only Freshman to score.

The summary of the game follows:

Freshman (6) Seniors (54)
Misamore, f Keach, f
Kasting, f Buhner, f
Diehl, c James, c
Fenton, g Mercer, g
Jullian, g Mackey, g
Substitutes—Seniors: Huber for Buhner.

Field goals—Freshmen: Diehl 2, Misamore 1. Seniors: Keach 15, James 4, Huber 4, Buhner 2, Mercer 2.

Referee—Jerome Boyles, S. H. S. '18.

The Sophomores and the Juniors, each boasted of having the winning team but when the Seniors defeated them both, there was nothing to do but fight it out for second place. And, so they did and fought hard. At no time during the game did one team feel confident of winning. Lind and Niehaus were the stars for the Sophomores, registering 12 and 9 points, respectively, while Eckstein and Steinwedel tied for the honors on the Juniors, each receiving 6 points to his credit. At the end of the first half the Juniors had the better of a 10 to 9 score, however, the Sophomores did not give up but fought steadily on. As a result of their hard work and confidence the tables were turned, the Sophomores adding 23 points to their credit while the Juniors were unable to pass the twenty mark. The Sophomores had snatched second place from the Juniors, leaving them third on the roll of honor, by the close score of 32 to 30.

The summary of the game follows:

Juniors (30) Sophomores (32)
Eckstein, f Lind, f

NEVER in the history of America have our people learned the value of regular saving as they learned it last year. The power of small savings accumulated into one mighty tide became the turning point in driving back the enemy from French and Belgian soil.

Our savings department offers to Seymour and Jackson county people the opportunity to lay aside money in any sums they may desire. We pay 3 per cent interest on our savings deposits and on time deposits.

Our Christmas clubs offer another way of providing for next Christmas needs by small weekly savings.

N. C. Rucker is working on several clues which he believes may furnish information as to the theft of a chicken coop which was removed from his back yard Sunday afternoon. He believes there may be a connection between the theft of the coop and the theft of some groceries from a farmer's wagon recently.

Vegetable dinners are becoming quite stylish nowadays. People eat less meat and feel better for it and they know that they are helping to feed the millions "Over There."

Potatoes and fruits should be used abundantly. We should not use butter for cooking and those who have become acquainted with the food value of vegetable oils have cut their order of lard right in two. Whatever you need in the grocery line is reasonably priced by us.

CIRCULATION OF 4,945 IN JANUARY

month, which shows an average daily circulation of 183 books. Of these fifty-eight percent, were fiction.

At the beginning of the month there were 1,422 adult borrowers and 1,584 juvenile borrowers, a total of 3,006. During the month thirty-four additional adult borrowers fourteen juvenile borrowers were added making a total of 3,054 borrowers enrolled.

There are 7,407 books catalogued in the library, of which 7,296 were listed on January 1. 111 volumes were added by purchase during the period and one was given to the institution. Only one book was lost or withdrawn from circulation, which proves that the borrowers are careful with the property which they are permitted to use. The circulation of pictures was 4,900.

The librarian's financial report, covering small desk items, shows a balance of $38.32. Incidental expenses such as drayage and freight constituted the principal items of expense in this fund.

The regular meeting of the board was held Tuesday night and the following officers were re-elected.

President—R. A. Cox,
Vice-President—T. A. Mott,
Secretary—Mrs. Lynn Faulkner.

J. T. Gardner accompanied his son, George Gardner, to Cincinnati today and the latter will enter a hospital there for treatment of wounds he received several months ago in a duel with a tramp on a Baltimore & Ohio train near North Vernon. George Gardner was employed as a detective on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and had ordered the tramp from the train when the latter fired. The tramp was hit by bullets fired by Gardner and died several weeks ago at North Vernon.

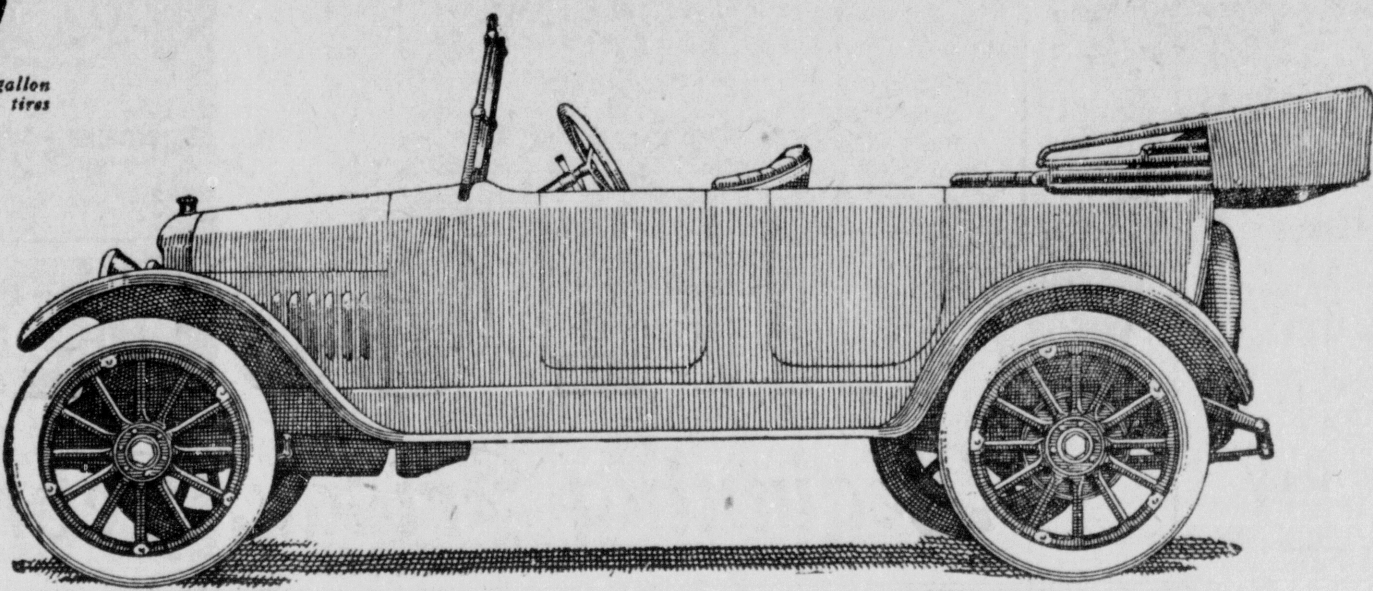

Among the first acts of the Pennsylvania Railroad in re-establishing its old employees who entered the military service will occur here Sunday when C. P. Haehl, New Albany, will be given the position of night ticket agent now held by Irving Harris, North Broadway. Prior to his enlistment in the navy a few months ago Haehl was employed in the station at Henryville. The position he is to take has been held by Mr. Harris for some time.

Mrs. O. E. Henderson left this morning for Blanchester, Ohio, where she will be the guest of her brother, George Anderson.

Mrs. J. J. Peter went to Louisville Wednesday to see "The Off Chance."

Stop Itching Skin

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear. A little Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

We couldn't make the Maxwell any better; so we made it better looking

AN artist never frames his masterpiece until he finishes it.

So the new Maxwell, a completed work, is now robed in new garments.

They do not make it run any better. They make it look better.

Mr. Whistler, himself, were he here today and saw a new Maxwell pass on the street, would probably give it a second look.

A little touch here, the straightening of a line there, the bringing of a fender a little closer to the wheel, a circassian walnut dash before you as you sit at the wheel, the strength lent by putting the gas tank in the rear, the multiplication of bonnet vents, the adding of three more painting coats, the increased thickness of the seat cushions—these, though but a few of the many changes made,—show the tendency of the new beauty.

It is in the sum of many little things that the full story is told.

The car was first checked off in squares, as a doctor sometimes marks off a man's chest and back to test every square inch of the lungs.

And there was an improvement made in nearly every square.

When the task was done it looked like a different Maxwell.

But it wasn't.

It was the same, sound, go-get-there chassis built to stand the gaff of rough and ready driving, built to endure, to "stay put," to stand all the erratic moods of the careless driver.

It was a five year drive to reach this present peak of Maxwell efficiency. But the engineers, and the manufacturing men knew that building a chassis without fundamental change in design year after year would ultimately tell in results. For every one knows that doing one thing results in doing it well.

So in five years 300,000 Maxwells have come forth, all built on the original chassis plan—each new one better than the last.

There is no self-starting automobile in the world that has such a manufacturing record.

Think what it means to a man who owns one:

He has not paid for a false overhead.

He has not paid for manufacturing mistakes.

He has not paid for experimental work.

He has not paid for the changes of mind of another man.

Today you get a better Maxwell than any of the 300,000, and a better looking Maxwell. It is a finished work, a completed task, a thing well done.

You run no risk—and when you cast your eyes on it you are tempted to feel that the price might easily be $200 more.

As the immortal Sam Weller observed is a fine thing, "when you know the lady as made it." Weller hit upon the reason. We like to place dependence for the quality of the food we eat on someone in whom we have confidence. We do not experiment with brands and change from one to another with the arrival of every salesman. ## Period Furniture

What it is and its significance.

THE furniture styles which we so commonly know of today as "Period", had their inception in the early history of France and England. The craftsmen of those countries all worked with a view to creating individual styles, and those styles were more or less influenced in every instance by the tendencies and needs of the time. The designers were guided by the architectural tendencies of other countries to a great extent, notably drawing suggestions from the Italian, Dutch and Greek.

The grace and beauty of period furniture combined with its practicability and simplicity make it paramount in our regard, representing as it does, the finest in furniture art. The efficient work of those old English and French men, who fathered their beautiful creations in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, is now appreciated and admired by us all, succeeding generations cherishing more and more their classic achievements. Period furniture then, bears the same relation to the artistic in home furnishing that the work of the early masters bears to the world of art, music and literature.

In line with our usual progressive policies, we are going to print a series of ads which will be instructive and interesting about period furniture. If you will note the things we tell you, you will have a fund of definite and worthwhile information on period styles and characteristics.

Incidents in the Lives of Famous Women

(By Eloise Farrington.)

The American stage boasts of many great tragedians, but among the feminine geniuses who have aspired to reign as queens in the realm of tragedy, the name of Charlotte Cushman stands alone.

Boston was the birthplace of this famous tragedienne. Her parents being wealthy, she had no thought of a stage career until reverses came upon the family. Then, having a beautiful contralto voice, she not only sang in opera, but did concert and choir singing as well.

The young prima donna was gradually winning public favor when a great disaster fell upon her. When singing in opera in New Orleans, her voice suddenly left her. She had overtaxed the upper register and her singing days were at an end. In desperation she went to Mr. Caldwell, a theatrical manager for advice.

"You ought to be an actress, not a singer," he said. "If you will study a few dramatic roles I will get Mr. Barton, the tragedian of our theater, to hear you and take an interest in you."

Charlotte Cushman was glad for this opportunity to mend her fortunes and set to work studying the parts. Mr. Barton was so enthusiastic over her trial performance that he engaged her to play Lady Macbeth at a benefit. This role is acknowledged to be the most difficult that can be assigned to an actress.

Miss Cushman met with instant success as a tragedienne. She then determined to have the criticism of the more exacting audiences of New York. Much to her delight she had no trouble in securing an engagement at the Bowery Theater, and immediately attracted the attention of the managers.

But it was not until she joined the company of John Braham, in a dramatization of "Guy Mannering," that her great moment came. She was asked to play the role of Meg Merriles, as the actress cast for the part was unable to appear. There was less than two hours in which to memorize the part, but Charlotte Cushman was "letter perfect" by the time the performance was called.

She went to her dressing room and dressed herself as the weird, old witch with the greatest care. Her "makeup" was perfect when she finally went before the footlights.

From the moment she spoke the first line she was Meg Merriles, as Scott had created her. So convincing was her interpretation of the part that the star himself was totally eclipsed.

The audience was completely charmed with Miss Cushman's art and in a single performance she won everlasting fame.

At the end of the play Mr. Braham, who was too big hearted to show any professional jealousy, hurried to Miss Cushman's dressing room.

"I have come to congratulate you upon your artistic acting, Miss Cushman, and to thank you for the most genuine thrill I have experienced for a long time. I give you my word when I turned and saw you, in the first scene, I felt a cold chill run all over me."

As sometimes happens, the minor part of Meg Merriles became the stellar role of "Guy Mannering," due entirely to Miss Cushman's marvelous acting. Strange to say it was not her favorite part, though it brought her fame. The public, however, demanded that she play it again and again, and those who saw her vivid, terrifying impersonation of the witch never forgot the fiery weirdness of her performance.

From that time on the star of Miss Cushman's genius burned brightly. Every honor that could fall to the lot of a player was hers.

Lawrence Barrett is quoted to have said at her death: "Bigotry itself must stand abashed before the life of our dead queen, whose every thought and act were given, for years, to an art which envy and ignorance have battled against in vain for centuries."

Applique Work

However strong may have been their love of needlework in the past, many women find it difficult, in these busy days, to practice their favorite art as they used to do. And yet so many women are the possessors of a tiny flat or a couple of rooms, to which they return after a long day spent in one of the many labors that the war involves, and they are apt to miss the little individual touches in their furnishings and decorations that made their former surroundings so attractive; for, in those days, there was plenty of leisure time to be bestowed on the carrying out of designs in fine embroidery for the beautifying of their rooms.

These few lines are intended to indicate some ideas for needlework that may be quickly carried out, and that will add immensely to the decoration and color of a room.

Supposing the curtains to be either of a cream or dull green Bolton sheeting, a conventional design of lotuses in blue linen may be applied on to the borders with good effect, the design being simply cut out in blue linen for the flowers, and green linen for the leaves, then lightly tacked on to the material, before being either overcast or buttonholed on in large bold stitches. The same design, or an adaptation of it, might be used on the cushion covers, and a couple of dragon flies in more vivid colors should hover above the flowers.

Another scheme would include curtains in indigo blue lines or casement cloth, worked with a bold design of oranges, applied in yellow linen, with green leaves. This could be quickly and easily worked, and it is extremely effective.

A Convenient Paper Bag

A housekeeper who lives in an apartment building, where the garbage is collected every day, finds the paper bag a labor-saving device. In these days, when she carries home her own groceries, the dealer puts the small packages into one large bag, which is usually of good strong paper.

Bacon can be sliced evenly and with ease if first the dry brown surface is shaved off; then slice down to the rind, run the knife between the fat and the rind and the bacon can be lifted from the rind.

When aluminum cooking utensils become stained inside, boil a few apple peels in the stained kettles. All the stains will be removed and the kettles will look as bright as new.

The Work Mother

Work is the mother of Hope. Doubt and despair are regular boarders in the mind that is out of a job.

Work is the mother of Truth. Not by studying, but by doing, does the real truth about anything soak into your soul.

Work is the mother of Joy. There is a deal of nonsense written about the Man with the Hoe. He is a much more cheerful individual than the Man With the Golf Stick, except when he is a fool. Resting is not good when you rest all the time. But it is mighty good after a ten-mile tramp.

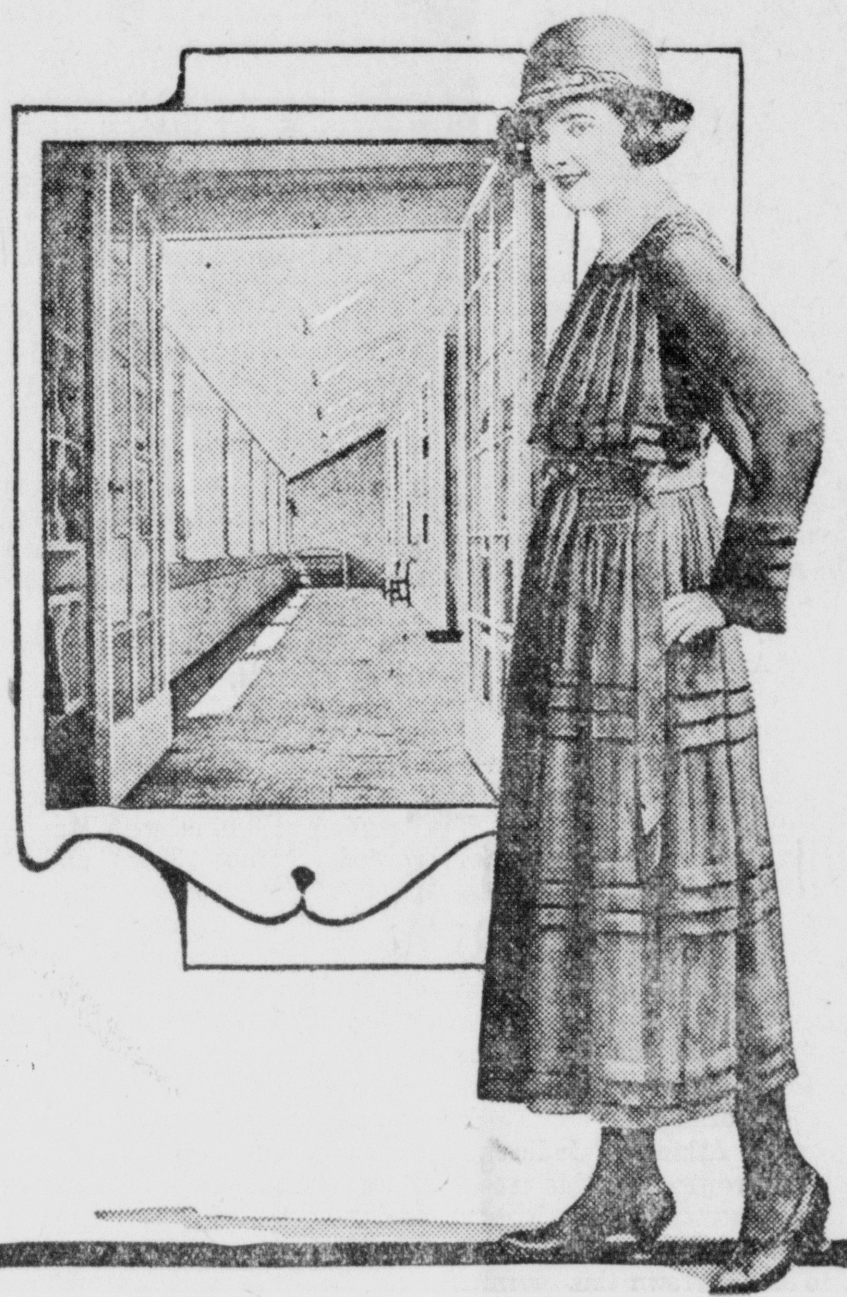

Work is the mother of Happiness. Happiness is the child of Weariness-from-Work. It is the shadow cast by the light from work. The dinner-pail brigade going to the factory of mornings have morning faces, and their step is firm and glad. The guests at the Grand Hotel de Luxe, the summer resort where it costs fourteen dollars a day for board and room, are jaded and faded until they begin to rouse themselves with alcohol.

Work is the mother of Play. People who play all the time are infinitely sadder than those who work all the time.

If, as they say, work is the curse of God then the curse of God is better than the blessings of men.—Frank Crane in Farm Life.

As In Days Gone By

The plain and conservative apparel that women allowed themselves in war times has affected our coming spring styles in two ways. First, it has brought hand-sewing and simplicity of design into more prominence than ever on spring and summer frocks and it has paved the way for a reaction in favor of lovely color. As in the days long gone by, when women had more leisure for needlework than they have allowed themselves recently, we are to have numbers of simply designed, beautifully made and finished, sheer frocks for summer weather.

Imported voiles have soared to unheard of prices and are unreasonably high. At $6 and $7 per yard they have silks and satins outdistanced. But American mills will turn out fine voiles, linen-finished lawns transparent organdies, not inexpensive, but not prohibitive in price. Some of these thin weaves suggest georgette and are fairly close imitations of it.

Useful Hints

To poach eggs successfully do not drop them into water while it is boiling, but draw the pan aside and drop the egg in when the water is still.

A plain blackboard eraser is splendid to keep near a stove. By using it to wipe off the top the stove is kept clean and does not need to be washed or polished but once or twice a week. These erasers can be made from pieces of wood covered with carpet at a very small cost.

To prevent cheese from drying out and getting stale, simply wring a white cloth out of vinegar and wrap closely around the cheese. It is surprising to learn how long cheese will remain fresh and soft if treated this way.

When washing a fringed bed-spread, never put it through the wringer after it has been taken from the last rinsing water. Hang it on the line wet and it will dry without a crease and the fringe will be as fluffy as new.

To prevent syrup from thickening or turning to sugar, put a tiny lump of alum (about the size of a pea) into the syrup while it is boiling.

To prevent thread from knotting when doing hand sewing, always make a knot in the end last broken from the spool. This done, stretch the thread by giving it several quick pulls.

In making tucks do not baste the tuck the width necessary, but, instead, baste on the edge, and use a gage to determine the width of the tuck. It is easier and neater.

BOSTON BAKED BEANS

1 pint pea beans, 1/2 teaspoonful soda, 1/4 pound salt pork, 1 small onion, 1 teaspoonful mustard, 1 1/2 teaspoonful salt, 1/4 teaspoonful pepper, 3 tablespoonfuls molasses, 1 cupful tomato puree.

Look over the beans carefully before soaking them at night. In the morning rinse, cover with cold water, add the soda and bring to the boiling-point. Boil gently till the skins burst, drain again, and pour half of them into the bean pot. Mix together the seasonings, including the onion which should be chopped, and the molasses; add a pint of boiling water and the tomato puree (stewed and sifted canned tomatoes), and pour into the pot. Place the salt pork on top and cover with the second half of the beans. Add water to cover all, place on the lid, and bake in a moderate oven for eight hours. It will be necessary to replenish the water occasionally, and during the last hour the pork should be raised to the top to brown. The cover should be off.

SOUTHERN BEATEN BISCUITS.

One and a half pounds of sifted flour, two heaping tablespoonfuls of lard, two teaspoonfuls of salt, and cold water. Sift the flour and salt into a basin, rub the lard in very finely, first cutting it up in small pieces. Next add enough cold water to mix the flour into a very stiff but not crumbly dough. Knead this thoroughly until it feels smooth and soft. Turn the dough on to a clean floured baking board, and, with a heavy rolling pin, beat it well, turning the mass over and over until it begins to blister and look light and puffy. When ready, pull off pieces, shape them into round biscuits. Prick over with a fork, and bake in a moderate oven for half an hour. They should be browned outside, and very white inside.

LIMA BEAN PUREE

1 1/2 cupful lima beans, 1 qt. boiling water, 2 tablespoonfuls minced onion, 2 tablespoonfuls minced carrots, 1/2 tablespoonful minced pimientos, bit of bay-leaf, 4 tablespoonfuls butter, 6 tablespoonfuls flour, 1 cupful rich cream or rich milk, 1 1/2 teaspoonful salt, 1/4 teaspoonful pepper, 2 tablespoonfuls tomato catchup, 2 cupfuls milk.

Soak the beans overnight, then drain, rinse, and put on to cook with one-fourth teaspoonful soda in the water. When half done, drain again, and put on to cook in one quart water with the onion, carrot, pimientos and bay-leaf. When the beans are tender, remove one cupful, rub the balance through a puree sieve, make a sauce of milk, butter and flour, combine, season, add cream and whole beans and reheat. Serve with buttered toast.

VIRGINIA WAFFLES.

Two cupfuls of flour, three tablespoonfuls of sugar, three eggs beaten separately, one and a half cupfuls of milk, half a cupful of corn meal, one heaping teaspoonful of salt one tablespoonful of melted butter, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, and one and a half cupfuls of boiling water. Cook the meal in the boiling water for half an hour, stirring occasionally. Then add the milk, sugar, the flour, baking powder and salt sifted together thoroughly, stir in the yolks of the eggs beaten until thick, the melted butter, and the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs.

Fry on a hot well greased waffle iron. Serve with golden syrup.

MASHED BAKED BANANAS

Bananas, Salt and pepper, melted butter. Run a sharp knife down the length of the fruit and loosen the peel from about it. Remove from the peel, then replace in the skin without mashing. If necessary, tie a thread around the skin to keep it closed after the pulp is replaced. Place in a pan in the oven and bake until the skin chars. Remove the soft pulp, mash and season with salt, pepper and melted butter. Serve in a heated dish. This can also be served with an unsweetened sauce made from drawn butter and lemon-juice.

POTATO CAKES.

One pound of Irish potatoes, two ounces of butter, two tablespoons of milk, a little flour, one level tablespoon of baking powder.

Peel and boil the potatoes, dry them and rub them while hot through a sieve, or mash well with a fork. Mix two ounces of butter with them, two tablespoons of milk, and just sufficient dry flour to bind the mixture. Add the baking powder. Roll the mixture into small flat cakes, flour both sides and bake on griddle or in a quick oven. Serve very hot and well buttered.

BLACK BEAN SOUP

1 1/2 cupful black beans, 1/8 teaspoonful soda, 4 tablespoonfuls minced onion, 2 stalks celery or dried celery leaves, 4 tablespoonfuls bacon fat, small piece ham, 3 cloves, 1 1/2 teaspoonful salt, 1/4 teaspoonful pepper, 1/4 teaspoonful mustard, 1 tablespoonful lemon-juice, 3 tablespoonfuls flour, 2 hard-boiled eggs.

The black or "turtle" bean is sometimes used in making a mock turtle soup, because of its color and flavor.

Soak beans overnight in enough water to cover. Drain, add two quarts of boiling water and one-eighth teaspoonful soda, and boil gently till tender, about four hours, adding the ham last hour, with the celery, cloves and onion which should be fried in half the bacon fat. Mix the other seasonings with the flour, rub with butter, and thicken the soup mixture. Then press through a colander and add lemon-juice and the hard-boiled egg, chopped fine.

WHITE KIDNEY BEAN CHOWDER

1 cupful white kidney beans, 1/4 teaspoonful soda, 1 can corn, 1 cupful tomato-juice, 1 1/4 teaspoonful salt, 1/4 teaspoonful pepper, 2 tablespoonfuls butter, cracker crumbs, 2 quarts boiling water.

White kidney beans are but rarely used, although quite as adaptable as lima bean for salads, or the pea bean for baking. When made into a chowder, it is a splendid dish to serve when camping or for supper after an afternoon of skating.

Soak the beans overnight. Drain and rinse and bring to the boiling-point with the soda and cold water to cover. Drain and rinse again, add to boiling water, and simmer slowly until the beans are nearly done. Then season add butter, tomatoes and corn, and when the beans are tender stir in dried cracker or bread-crumbs to thicken. Add more water if the evaporation is too rapid.

A COOKED OIL DRESSING.

Mix 2 tablespoons of flour with 1 of oil. Squeeze the juice of 1 lemon into a tumbler and fill it up with cold water. Mix the above until smooth and cook until thick in a double boiler. After removing from fire, beat into it the yolk of 1 egg and a cup of oil. Last of all, add the beaten white of the egg and season with salt, red pepper and sugar, if desired. Any of the oil substitutes for olive oil are satisfactory in this dressing.

Rainbow's End

..A NOVEL..

BY REX BEACH

Author of "The Iron Trail," "The Spoilers," "Heart of the Sunset," etc.

Copyright, by Harper and Brothers

Johnnie expressed his gratitude for this ready assistance. "One thing more," said he. "Will you give my boy, Jacket, a new pair of trousers and send him back to the Orient at the first opportunity?"

"Of course. It is done." The general laid a friendly hand upon O'Reilly's shoulder, saying, gravely: "It would relieve me intensely to send you back with him, for I have fears for the success of your venture. Matanzas is a hell; it has swallowed up thousands of our good countrymen; thousands have died there. I'm afraid you do not realize what risks you are taking."

O'Reilly did not allow this well-meant warning to influence him, nor did he listen to the admonitions of those other Cubans who tried to argue with him out of his purpose, once it became known. On the contrary, he proceeded with his preparations and spent that afternoon in satisfying himself that Rosa had indeed left the Puna de Matanzas before Cobo's raid.

Among Betancourt's troops was a man who had been living in the hills at the time Asensio and his family had abandoned their struggle for existence, and to him O'Reilly went. This fellow, it seemed, had remained with his family in the mountains some time after Asensio's departure. It was from him that O'Reilly heard his first authentic report of the atrocities perpetrated by Cobo's volunteers. This man had lost his wife, his little son, and all the scanty belongings he possessed. With shaking hands up-stretched to heaven, the fellow cursed the author of his misfortunes.

"I live for one thing!" he cried shrilly—"to meet that monster, and to butcher him, as he butchers women and children."

O'Reilly purposely left his most unpleasant task to the last. When his arrangements had been completed and he had acquainted himself as far as possible with the hazards he was likely to encounter, he took Jacket aside and broke the news to him that on the following morning they must part. As he had expected, the boy refused to listen to him. O'Reilly remained firm and Jacket began to weep copiously. He worked himself up to a hysterical crescendo which threatened to arouse the entire encampment. But O'Reilly was unmoved.

"Be quiet," he told the boy. "I won't let you go with me, and that ends it. It will be hard enough for one man to slip through; two would be sure to slip."

"Those Spaniards will kill you!" Jacket wailed.

"So much the more reason for you to stay here."

At this the boy uttered a louder cry. He stamped his bare feet in a frenzy of disappointment. "You dasent leave me—you dasent!"

"Listen, people are starving in Matanzas; they are sick; they are dying in the streets."

"I don't eat much."

When Johnnie shook his head stubbornly Jacket launched himself into a torrent of profanity the violence of which dried his tears. His vocabulary was surprising. He reviled the Spaniards, O'Reilly, himself, everybody and everything; he leveled anathemas at that woman who had come between him and his beloved benefactor. The latter listened good-naturedly.

"You're a tough kid," he laughed, when Jacket's first rage had worn itself out. "I like you, and I'd take you if I could. But this isn't an enterprise for a boy, and it won't get you anything to keep up this racket."

Jacket next tried the power of argument. He attempted to prove that in a hazardous undertaking of this sort his assistance would be invaluable. He was, so he declared, the one person in all Cuba in every respect qualified to share O'Reilly's perils. To begin with, he was not afraid of Spaniards, or anything else, for that matter—he dismissed the subject of personal courage with a contemptuous shrug. As for cunning, sagacity, prudence, resource, all-around worth, he was, without doubt, unequalled in any country. He was a veritable Spartan, too, when it came to hardship—privation and suffering were almost to his liking. He was discreet—discretion was something he had inherited; he was a diplomat—diplomacy being one of his most unique accomplishments. As for this talk about hunger, O'Reilly need not concern himself in the least on that score, for Jacket was a small eater and could grow fat on a diet of dried leaves. Disease? Bah! It made him laugh. His experience with sickness was wider than most fiscos, and he was a better nurse than Miss Evans would ever be. Jacket did not wish to appear in the least boastful. On the contrary, he was actually too modest, as his friends could attest, but truth compelled him to admit that he was just the man for O'Reilly. He found it impossible to recommend himself too highly; to save his soul he could think of no qualification in which he was lacking and could see no reason why his benefactor would not greatly profit by the free use of his amazing talents. The enterprise was difficult; it would certainly fail without him.

Johnnie remained carefully attentive during this adjuration. He felt no desire even to smile, for the boy's earnestness was touching and it caused the elder man's throat to tighten uncomfortably. Johnnie had not realized before how fond he had become of this quaint youngster. And so, when the little fellow paused hopefully, O'Reilly put an arm around him.

"I'm sure you are everything you say you are, Jacket, and more, too, but you can't go!"

With that Jacket flung off the embrace and, stalking away, seated himself. He took a half-smoked cigar from the pocket of his shirt and lit it, scowling the while at his friend. More than once during the evening O'Reilly detected his sullen, angry eyes upon him.

General Betancourt and several members of his staff were up early the following morning to bid their visitor good-by. In spite of their efforts to make the parting cheerful it was plain that they had but little hope of ever again seeing this foolhardy American.

Johnnie's spirits were not in the least affected by this ill-concealed pessimism, for, as he told himself, he had money in his pockets and Matanzas was not many miles away. But when he came to part from Jacket he experienced a genuine disappointment. The boy, strangely enough, was almost indifferent to his leaving; he merely extended a limp, dirty hand, and replied to O'Reilly's parting words with a careless "Adios!"

In hurt surprise the former inquired, "Don't we part good friends?"

"Sure!" Jacket shrugged, then turned away. Jacket was a likable youngster; his devotion was thoroughly unselfish; it had not been easy to wound him. With keener regrets than he cared to acknowledge O'Reilly set out upon his journey, following the guide whom General Betancourt had provided.

It was a lovely morning, sufficiently warm to promise a hot midday; the air was moist and fresh from a recent shower. This being the rainy season, the trails were soft, and where the rich red Cuban soil was exposed the travelers sank into it as into wet putty.

Crossing a rocky ridge, O'Reilly and his guide at last emerged upon an open slope, knee-high in grass and grown up to bottle palms, those queer, distorted trees whose trunks are swollen into the likeness of earthen water jars. Scattered here and there over the meadows were the dead or fallen trunks of another variety, the cabbage palm, the green heart of which had long formed a staple article of diet for the insurgents. Spanish axes had been at work here and not a single tree remained alive. The green floor of the valley farther down was dotted with the other, the royal kind, that monarch of tropic vegetation which lends to the Cuban landscape its peculiar and distinctive beauty.

"Yonder is the camino," said the countryman, pointing into the valley; "it will lead you to the main road; and there"—he turned to the northward—"is Matanzas. Go with God, and don't drink the well water, which is polluted from the rains." With a smile and a wave of the hand the man turned back and plunged into the jungle.

As O'Reilly descended the slope he realized keenly that he was alone and in hostile territory. The hills and the woods from Pinar del Rio to Oriente were Cuban, or, at most, they were disputed ground. But here in the plains and valleys near the cities Spain was supreme. From this moment on O'Reilly knew he must rely entirely upon himself. The success of his enterprise—his very life—hinged upon his caution, his powers of dissimulation, his ability to pass as a harmless, helpless pacifist. It gave him an unaccustomed thrill, by no means pleasant.

COUGHED NIGHT AND DAY FOR TWO YEARS

Mr. Parkhurst tells how he found quick relief from chronic bronchial trouble.

"Two years ago, I had an attack of grippe which left me with a bad cough. Finally this became a case of chronic bronchial asthma, and four doctors told me it could not be cured."

"I commenced taking everything my friends recommended, but I got worse instead of better. For two years, I was unable to do any work except to cough constantly night and day, which was the hardest work I ever did."

"Finally I got hold of Milks Emulsion. It benefited me so much, right from the start, that it came as a God-send. In two months I was perfectly cured. I gained in health, strength and flesh rapidly."

"J. M. Parkhurst, Leon St., W. Terre Haute, Ind."

Coughs like the one above described seldom yield to local treatments. The surest way to reach them is to build up and strengthen the whole system. For any obstinate cough, Milks Emulsion is a remarkable remedy. Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritious food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down, nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of asthma, chronic bronchitis, and tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by C. E. Loertz.

DAILY HEALTH TALKS

The Troubles Women Have

BY L. MAC LEAN, M. D.

Probably no man in America was ever better qualified to successfully treat the diseases peculiar to women than Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. The cases that come to him run into many thousands, giving him an experience that rarely comes to any one man. Dr. Pierce found that in nearly every case there were certain vegetable growths which rarely failed to give prompt relief in those feminine disorders from which so many women suffer. He combined these roots and herbs into a temperance medicine that he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for that is precisely what it was. This medicine is sold in both liquid and tablet form by druggists everywhere. Favorite Prescription is a distinct remedy for women and acts directly upon the organs that characterize the sex. It is not necessary to take a long course of treatment with this standard medicine. A weakly, sickly, backache, nervous, despondent woman, with regular or irregular pains—with feminine disorders that come in youth or middle age—is pretty sure to find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the exact remedy that her condition calls for, and to find it after a very few doses are taken. Why women should allow themselves to stay sick when a very little money spent for this remedy will probably make them well, is something no one can explain.

All women who suffer from feminine disorders are invited to write the Faculty of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for free confidential consultation and advice, no charge being made for this high professional service. This will enable every woman to benefit by the advice of the distinguished corps of physicians which Dr. Pierce has gathered about him in his celebrated Buffalo institution.

When constipation is present with feminine disorders, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken along with Favorite Prescription. Try them now!

Our method of pressing clothes by steam is such that the fabric of the woolens is preserved, the colors are brightened and the cloth is given a firmness that is found in new materials. It has been proved that proper pressing and cleaning by the right methods adds to the wearing qualities of the cloth. Money that is spent for pressing is well spent. It is economy and at the same time it adds to the appearance of the suit or dress. It is because our methods are so satisfactory that our business is growing by such leaps and bounds. # Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally starves its victims in the midst of plenty. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—head-aches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of the trouble.

Naturally, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloated out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach miseries. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.
